

DIRK KROLL

DIRK KROLL moved from Southern California to Metro Detroit at a young age with both a Sonny Rollins and an Eddie Cochran album in tow. In no time, he fell in love with the Motown sound showcasing the power of strong vocal delivery combined with fantastic melodies.

Kroll's songs are influenced by early British Pop-Rock from across the Atlantic and back, blues, funk, ska and elements of Americana. He holds several Detroit Music Award nominations over the years, including awarded the Outstanding Rock/Pop Songwriter Award for 2021 and 2020.

Kroll continues to compose songs regularly and fronts the DIRK KROLL BAND with genre-spanning storied songs featuring horns, keyboards and blended vocal harmonies.

THE DIRK KROLL BAND

"Dirk Kroll writes some punchy pop-rock music with just a good amount of grit and a charismatic swagger. The solos are fast, flame-wreathed whips and the bass/drum combo sets a solid groove."

Jeff Milo, Journalist at Deep Cutz Music Blog
Detroit Free Press, Ann Arbor Current, Metro Times

"The hardest part of being a tunesmith is being believable. Dirk Kroll's new album 'Your Flight' is simply brilliant. It shows depth and how he is influenced by the greats. 'I Only Fall in Love' is a hit. There isn't a weak recording on this album. I love this record."

Scott Forbes Michigan Channel 26

"Dirk Kroll is a curator of stories and he lures listeners with contagious melodies paired with rare honesty."

Rustbelt City Limits

"Kroll takes his time with composition, crafting a smooth musical backdrop for his storytelling. The DKB represents the best of today's singer/songwriters, swirled with a touch of early Rolling Stones, and aged well in a vat of Detroit's rock 'n' roll."

Lianna Trimble, Total Traffic Network
